BECCY FEATHER FLIES IN.....

The Eagles are proud to welcome their new Mascot Beccy Feathers, who will be supporting the team throughout the season... The Mascot has been supplied by new sponsors the Cooperhouse Public House in Port Talbot and she was unveiled at a recent function at the Cooperhouse where a number of Eagles were present to welcome her to the nest!

Far Right Eagles captain Neal Ellerton with Bec's and on the right some of the Eagles get to know our new mascot...

WHITLEY BAY TOUR 2009, EAGLES HAVE A HOOT....!

The Annual Cardiff Eagles Whitley Bay Tour once again Rooled into action this past summer and there are many stories to tell, and many stories to keep within the team!

The Eagles spent four days up north playing two matches, eating 80 pizza's and consuming an unspecified amount of alcohol..! The weather held for the team so with the sun shining this made team moral even stronger.

The 09/10 Whitley Bay Tour video is in the final production stages, so keep your eyes on our you tube site at <http://www.youtube.com/cardiffeagles> where the video will be posted later this month (September 09).

In the meantime on the right are a few tasters....
